11. The Vice-President proposed an increase to the pay of the Collection Establishment as a tentative measure for nine months from 1st as shewn in the annexed statement and suggested the necessity of entertaining an additional Kolkar to Duty at the Head Katchery from 1st July 1889.

He stated that the Collection of Seigniorage had considerably added to the Duty of the Establishment as the Karkoon and the Kolkar had to accompany each Cart as it came from the entrance Katchery to the Head Katchery that the high pay now paid in Coffee Estates attracted good men away and that the officials being inadequately paid it had become difficult to secure good men and proposed that this little increase would not only be an encouragement to them but would also
